WOMEN'S SOCCER

The women's soccer team enjoyed a winning season that may prove to be the most memorable one yet. Coached by Joe Pereira, the Lady Monarchs in only their second year of conference play went on to win the DIAC championship with a perfect 4-0 record. The team's leading scorers were Lisa Milligan and Jill Starke. Milligan had 21 goals and 12 assists; Starke had 12 goals and 10 assists. Due to these outstanding scorers and the devotion and skill of their teammates, the Lady Monarchs finished the season with an 11-7 record.

After losses to Christopher Newport College and Greensboro College, the Lady Moharchs rebounded with a 13-match winning streak defeating North Carolina A & T, North Carolina Wesleyan, Sweet Briar, Randolph-Macon Women's College, Longwood, Ferrum, Christopher Newport, Averett, Coker, East Carolina and Bennett. Townsend was named 1986 Dixie All-Conference First Team. In 25 regular season games, he pulled down 242 rebounds for a per game average of 9.7, connected on 216 of 432 shots for an even 50 percent from the field and hit 132 of 188 for 70 percent from the charity stripe.

CROSS COUNTRY

First-year coach Fiore Bergamasco saw his men's cross country team participating in several competitive invitational meets, including the annual Methodist College Invitational, held Saturday morning, Oct. 12,
during Homecoming '85
Weekend.

The team was comprised of five outstanding freshmen, led by Brian Cole from Tiffin, OH. The young Monarchs placed second in the Dixie Conference meet, only eight points behind defending champion Christopher Newport College.

Only three women ran cross country in 1985 but they turned in some stellar performances.
Freshman Cindy Burger from Smithtown, NY, set the pace with several outstanding individual times

"I was extremely pleased with the way the season went," said Bergamsco. "I'm looking forward to working with the returning upperclassmen as well as some outstanding new freshmen in 1986."

WOMEN'S GOLF

Coach Darci Wilson, Darcy Krumme, Joy Bonhurst, Rose Turner, Holly Anderson.

The Methodist College women's golf team brought home the school's first national team championship by winning the Small College Nationals/Azalea Seahawk Golf Tournament. The tournament, featuring the top Division II and III teams, was held April 11-13 at Echo Farms Golf Club in Wilmington, NC.

Coach Darci Wilson and a quartet of freshmen linksters swept the Division III competition, finishing 90 strokes ahead of the runner-up squad. Holly Anderson earned individual medalist honors with a three-day tally of 83-77-76 — 236 on the 54-hole course. Rounding out the team scores were Joy Bonhurst, 248; Rose Turner, 256; and Darcy Krumme, 266. Anderson, Bonhurst and Turner earned All-American honors.

The national title capped off a successful fall and spring season for the Lady Monarchs. The team also participated in meets at William and Mary, Rutgers, the Peggy Kirk Bell Invitational at Rollins College in Florida, Yale, James Madison, Longwood College, Duke and North Carolina State.

MEN'S GOLF

Under new coach Hal Morrison, the Methodist College golfers once again proved to be a formidable force in NCAA Division III golf. Led by medalist John Walsh, the Monarchs successfully defended their DIAC crown. Walsh shot a 75-77 — 152 for first place. Kurt Hoflein shot a 156 and Brian Connor was one stroke behind. All three linksters earned All-Conference honors.

At the national tournament held in late May at Wilkes Barre, PA, Methodist finished seventh in the team standings. Connor tied for runner-up medalist honors with a four-day total of 296 on the par-71, 6,670-yard Fox Hill Country Club course.

Methodist finished with a team score of 1,232.

California State-Stanislaus won the team title with a 1,208 followed by the University of California-San Diego at 1,218.

The team also competed at the Max Ward Invitational (third of 23 teams), Fripp Island Intercollegiate (third of 14 teams), Pembroke State University Invitational (third of 15 teams) and the District III Tournament (seventh of 24 teams)

Walsh took medalist honors at Pembroke and Connor was medalist at the Max Ward meet.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

(front) — Lori Silvasy, Teresa Estes. (back) — Becky Burleigh, Emlyn Carter, Daphne Gant, Vivian Guerrero.

Coach Lynn Swann and the Lady Monarch tennis squad found success in 1986, finishing with a .500 season and winning four of their six conference matches.

Swann noted that the team improved throughout the season. "The girls were more aggressive at the net, more consistent all around, and their mental toughness was more developed. Their communication in doubles improved tremendously."

Vivian Guerrero held down the number one spot for the Lady Monarchs. Daphne Gant played No. 2 singles and Emlyn Carter, Becky Burleigh, Lori Silvasy and Teresa Estes rounded out the remaining singles positions.

The doubles teams were comprised of Guerrero-Burleigh, Gant-Carter and Silvasy-Estes.

As the season drew to a close, the Lady Monarchs puts together a four match winning streak and won five of their last six matches. Optimism was high heading into the conference tournament. However, Methodist fell short of its expectations, finishing a disappointing fifth. UNC-G took the team title with 52 points followed by Christopher Newport, 32; St. Andrews, 12; Virginia Wesleyan, 12; Methodist, 10; Greensboro, 6; and Averett, 0.

A highlight of the season was a 7-2 defeat of powerful Francis Marion, a team Methodist fell to, 8-1, in the first match of the season.

Methodist finished the year at 6-6 with a 4-2 Dixie Conference record.

MEN'S TENNIS

It was a year of rebuilding for the men's tennis team at Methodist College. Graduation and transfers resulted in the Monarchs fielding a young and inexperienced squad.

Although the Monarchs were winless in their 16-match dual season, the team picked up valuable experience for the 1987 season.

Sei Miyamoto held down the No. 1 singles spot for Methodist this year. The only returning squad member on coach Mike Parson's '86 team, Miyamoto had played in the No. 6 position last year. Rounding out the singles slots, Nos. 2-6, were Steve Springthorpe, Ron Phipps, Don Phipps, David Wright and Jeff Rivers.

Miyamoto and Rivers formed the No. 1 doubles team, Wright and Springthorpe played No. 2 doubles and the Phipps twins played as MC's third doubles team.

MC participated in the Dixie Conference tournament at Averett College to conclude the season. All six singles participants and the three doubles teams were eliminated in the first round. UNC-Greensboro took first place with 42 points. Methodist and North Carolina Wesleyan tied for seventh.

A trip to the NCAA Division III World Series put the crowning glory on the most successful baseball season in history. It was a record-setting year for the '86 Monarchs, with the team establishing several school, conference and national marks.

After dropping their first game, the Monarchs went on a tear. At one point, Methodist had not lost in 29 games (two ties were included in this stretch) and had won 17 consecutive games.

Included in the string was a big 7-5 win over rival North Carolina Wesleyan on Easter Monday, March 31, at Shelley Field. That win, the first over the Battling Bishops in several years, put Methodist in first place in the DIAC.

NC Wesleyan later turned the tables, dropping Methodist 10-5 in Rocky Mount on April 13. Both teams went into the last week of conference play with one loss each. Methodist downed St. Andrews to clinch a tie for the title and then got a big boost from Virginia Wesleyan. The Blue Marlins dropped NC Wesleyan to give Methodist the title outright with a 7-1 record.

With a 39-3-2 record and a No. 4 national ranking, MC was

With a 39-3-2 record and a No. 4 national ranking, MC was selected to the NCAA Division III playoffs, its fifth straight NCAA berth. Another first came when Methodist was selected to host the South Regional. Methodist played host to North Carolina Wesleyan and two schools from the New Jersey Athletic Conference — Trenton State College and Glassboro State Collège.

Wesleyan opened play in the three-day double elimination tournament on Wednesday, May 21, with a 9-4 win over Glassboro State. Methodist made it two straight for the Dixie Conference with a 12-7 win over Trenton State. On Thursday, MC downed Wesleyan in a big game, 8-3, and Trenton won back-to-back games over Glassboro and Wesleyan to eliminate both those teams. On Friday, Methodist lost its first contest in the tourney, 7-3 to Trenton, to set up the championship final that immediately followed. The Monarchs prevailed over Trenton, 10-6, to advance to their first-ever national tournament.

Although ranked No. 2 heading into the tournament at Marietta (OH) College, Methodist found the going a bit tougher After dropping its opener to the host school, 12-6, the team regrouped to down Cal State-Stanislaus, 12-8. A second loss to Marietta, 18-14, eliminated Methodist from the tournament with a fourth-place finish.

Methodist closed out its finest season in school history with a 43-6-2 record.

Three individuals were named All-American: Danny Hartline, sophomore from Laurel Hill, NC, first team outfielder; Mike Brewington, freshman from Fayetteville, second team outfielder, and Doug Garner, senior from Beautort, NC, third team shortstop.

Hartline, Brewington, catcher Paul Currie and second baseman Jansen Evans were named to the South Regional All-Tournament Team with Hartline copping the tourney's MVP honor.

Named All-South were Hartline, Brewington, Garner, Evans, Stan Mozingo and Mark Bass. Monarchs selected to the All-Dixie Conference Team were Hartline, Brewington, Garner, Mozingo and Bass. Coach Tom Austin, who picked up his 200th career victory during the season, was named DIAC Coach of the Year.

TEAM SHOT (front) — Carla Oglesby, Tracy Gillin, Sharon Thompson, Stephanie Gore, Tracy McGinnis, Janet Burleson, Laura Mead, Sherri Alderman. (back) — Kim Floyd, Margaret Melo, Sharon Graham, Julie Hunter, Lisa Wymer, Jimmie Morris, Karen Mason, coach Dan Lawrence.

The women's softball team, in only their second season of fast-pitch competition, made their presence known in a big way. Led by second team All-American pitcher Lisa Wymer, a sophomore from Culpeper, VA, the Lady Monarchs rolled up an impressive 36-13-2 season record and finished as runner-up in the regular season standings and in the conference tournament, held on the Methodist diamond.

With a 23-5 conference mark, the Lady Monarchs were only two games behind champion Virginia Wesleyan, 25-3. Methodist fell to Virginia Wesleyan, 3-0, in the conference tourney finals. That loss spoiled their chances of earning a bid to the NCAA Division III playoffs, but with a young team, the Lady. Monarchs are confident of winning the conference crown and advancing to the national tourney next spring.

Wymer was named to the DIAC All-Conference team along with outfielders Janet Burleson and Jimmie Lou Morris. Karen Mason, Margaret Melo and Carla Oglesby received honorable mention. Morris was also named to the DIAC All-Tournament team.

The Lady Monarchs, coached by Dan Lawrence, finished the year ranked 16th in Division III. The team had been ranked as high as 10th earlier in the season.

TRACK

Karen Grant and Rodney Burgess

It was out of the starting blocks and into the limelight for MC's inaugural indoor track season. The Monarchs claimed two All-Americans and the college's first national champion at the NCAA Division III indoor meet held in March at St. Paul, MN. Junior Karen Grant from Sumter, SC, became Methodist's first national champion with a 39'3" effort in the triple jump. Grant broke the national record with her championship jump. Rodney Burgess, a freshman from Penn Yan, NY, brought home fourth place in the long jump with a leap of 23'1".

The outdoor season saw the Monarch record book rewritten with a total of 17 new school standards. Six team members qualified for the NCAA nationals at the University of Wisconsin-Lacrosse with two earning All-American honors.

Grant continued her winning ways, completing a sweep in the triple jump events, this time winning the outdoor title with a jump of 40' 61/4". Once again she shattered the existing national meet record. Karen was a near double-gold winner as she placed second in the long jump at 18' 91/2". Burgess placed third in the long jump at 23' 91/2" and qualified in the 100-meter dash and the 400-meter relay. Other members on that national-qualifying relay unit were Arthur Stuart, Alfred Williams and Roger Davis. Also qualifying was high jumper Vivian Culverhouse. Methodist scored 18 points in the women's meet — good for 11th place — and tied with seven other teams with six points for 35th in the men's meet. The Monarchs were coached by Fiore Bergamasco.

CENTER STAGE

in the Snack Bar

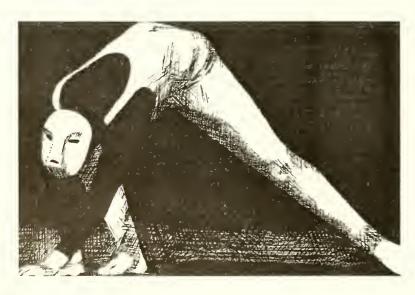

Denise Moses

Denise Moses is a character comedienne who spoofs beauty pageants, kids shows, airlines and beauty parlors. Denise combines stand-up comedy and original characters in her one-woman show.

Kier is a highly polished and captivating performer who uses guitar, piano, harmonica and voice. Kier is unlike any other solo act in that he does vocal impressions of certain artists like Billy Joel, Bruce Springsteen, Sting and others, along with his splendid original tunes and a healthy dose of humor.

Ken Alcorn

He stands alone, silent, on an empty stage. Yet, somehow objects are seemingly created out of space, a movement of the arm, of the head, of the hand, a twinge of the eye to convey the emotion of the moment. He is Ken Alcorn — mime.

Tim Cavanaugh

Tim has become a regular favorite at Chicago's best comedy nightclubs, "Zanies" and "Who's On First." His comedy songs have been among the most requested pieces on the nationally-syndicated "Dr. Demento" radio show. Even his mother admits that he's pretty talented for an orphan.

Barry Drake

Barry Drake plays folk, blues, rock 'n' roll, original and familiar material and effortlessly ties them all together with some hilarious and poignant stories. As soon as he takes to the stage, an old Martin guitar in hand, his life begins to unfold through his songs.

MAINSTREAM

Mainstream was the entertainment for the 1985 Homecoming Dance on Saturday, Oct. 12, at Green Valley Country Club. Band members are (l. to r.) Bill Butler, Tim Alston, Flay Blalock, Alan Shifman, Scott Hanson and Ron Hicks.

When the eight dancers of American Ballet Comedy perform, laughter swings from giggles to guffaws to outright rolling in the aisles. Each concert presentation has its roots in ballet and modern dance techniques but, at the same time, uproariously blends humor and vaudeville with both popular and classical music. The end result is always entertaining. As such, the company appeals to a dance audience who appreciates the clever and sophisticated selections, as well as to children of all ages, even those who may be unfamiliar with classical dance.

Innovated costumes and props are a hallmark of each concert and delight the eye while supporting the dance's story line. Jetes and arabesques are mirthful when performed not by the Black Swan, but by the flirtatious and properly antennaed Black Cockroach Queen. In an evening with American Ballet Comedy, a feisty Senorina, a benevolent Bee and a giant Hand are but some of the original concoctions that fly about the stage with technical virtuosity.

Since it began touring internationally in 1978, American Ballet Comedy has appeared in Paris, Rome, Berlin, Africa and Isreal.

SABOR

SABOR is a recently formed song and dance group whose purpose is to bring Hispanic songs and dances to the community. The authenticity of their numbers, the musicianship of the members, and the love of music and dance that each one exhibits as they bring the special flavors, moods, rhythms and movements of many different parts and periods of the Hispanic World into each part of the program is truly educational as well as entertaining.

To those of the Methodist College campus:

I realize that I may receive some criticism for this annual.

However, I truly believe that I have done my best under the given conditions such as the lack of staff and time.

I voluntered my time to the Carillon because I believe that an annual is an important part of campus life. Also, I volunteered my time and creativity to help preserve college memories for others as well as myself.

I hope you have enjoyed this '85-'86 Carillon. My goal for the next annual is to improve it.

UPWARD

The direction was indeed upward at Methodist College in 1985-86. Heightened by the largest enrollment increase and overall enrollment in history, the college soared rapidly along a path marked by achievement and success. With the increase in students came expansion in and personnel. A number of new faculty and staff members joined the campus community. Exciting new programs were created for degree completion in nursing, golf management, communications and arts management. Seven new majors were added to the Methodist College curriculum in 1985-86.

New inroads were made for enhancing student life. More activities were made available to the student body, residence halls were improved, and the Student Union and cafeteria areas were refurbished.

There were numerous improvements to the campus physical plant. All streets and parking lots were resurfaced, several new offices were built and many others remodeled, and the appearance of the campus was enhanced with landscaping changes.

Increased efforts were made in all areas of the college's external relations. Continued commitment was made in aiding the Admissions Office in attracting quality students, and new offices were created for development and church and community relations.

Methodist continued its pledge to the community to offer quality entertainment with no admission charge. Exciting NCAA athletic events were offered throughout the year and among the myriad cultural events were plays, recitals, concerts and art exhibits.

The mood throughout the campus community was upbeat and positive for 1985-86. And the future of the college continues to focus upward. With the success of the past 25 years serving as a foundation, heightened by this year's milestones, the years ahead look to be fruitful for Methodist College. Upward — the direction of the past year, the next year and all the years to come.
